Before I went to Brazil, I had to change my money to Brazilian reais.

Brazil is the biggest country in the whole continent. It covers nearly half of South America. The capital city is Brasilia but the most famous city is Rio de Janeiro.

This is Rio de Janeiro. It has really amazing views!

The most famous landmark in Rio de Janeiro is the Christ the Redeemer statue. It sits at the top of the Corcovado mountain and overlooks the city.

I took a cable car ride to the top of Sugarloaf Mountain. It's a good job I am not scared of heights!

I went to the Rio Carnival. Everyone dresses up with masks and fun costumes!

I visited Iguazu Falls which is on the border of Brazil and Argentina. These giant waterfalls are really loud and very spectacular!

Football is the most popular sport in Brazil. Brazil has a very good national team and football is taken very seriously. I watched a football match and lots of people had painted their faces with the Brazilian flag!

Brazil is home to the largest rainforest in the world, the Amazon rainforest. Rainforests are very hot and humid places where lots of plants and animals live.

I took a trip into the rainforest. What animals do you think I saw?

I saw all these interesting animals and many more in the rainforest.

The Amazon River is the second longest river in the world. It mostly runs through rainforests. The Amazon river flows through Brazil and several other countries in South America.

Did you know that there are more than 3000 species of fish that live in the Amazon River, including piranha fish who have very sharp teeth and who eat meat!
