Dear Aunt Maud,
We arrived at the station after a long train journey. We had sandwiches and milk on the train. We walked straight to the beach where we saw jugglers. There was a brass band playing too. Next, we walked along the promenade and had fish and chips on the beach. Our hotel is very nice and there is a lovely view of the sparkling sea.
Love from Victoria.

Dear William,
We are having a lovely time at the seaside. I had my first ride on a steam train which was really fun. Today on the beach we watched a Punch and Judy puppet show while we ate ice-cream. I had chocolate and Mother had strawberry. Tomorrow we will go for a ride on the merry-go-round.

Beside the Seaside

Everyone delights to spend their summer holidays,
Down by the side of the silvery sea.
I'm no exception to the rule,
In fact, if I'd my way,
I'd reside by the side of the silvery sea.
But when you're just the common or garden Smith or Jones or Brown,
At business up in town,
You've got to settle down.
You save up all the money you can 'til summer comes around,
Then away you go to a spot you know,
Where the cockle shells are found.

Oh! I do like to be beside the seaside,
I do like to be beside the sea!
I do like to stroll upon the prom, prom, prom,
Where the brass bands play:
"Tiddly om-pom-pom!"
So just let me be beside the seaside,
I'll be beside myself with glee,
And there's lots of girls beside,
I should like to be beside,
Beside the seaside!
Beside the sea!
