

I travel to the seaside on a steam train.

I only wear my swimming costume when I am in the sea.
I wear my clothes when I am on the sand.

I wear my swimming costume all the time when I am at the seaside.

I get changed into my swimsuit in a bathing machine when I am at the beach.

I like to eat ice cream and fish and chips on my seaside holiday.

I travel to the seaside by car, train or aeroplane.

At the seaside I like to build sandcastles and swim in the sea.

I wear suncream on my skin when I go to the seaside.

I like to walk along the promenade and listen to the brass bands playing when I go to the seaside.

I like to eat cockles and jellied eels on my seaside holiday.

It is fashionable to have pale skin so I cover myself up at the seaside so I don't get a tan.

I like to try different water sports like surfing and jet skiing when I go to the beach.

At the seaside I like to watch Punch and Judy puppet shows.

I like to buy souvenirs of my holiday when I go the seaside.

Can you describe how seaside holidays now and in the past are the same or different by completing this table? Write as much information as you can.

	Seaside holidays in the past	Seaside holidays now
Travel	We travel to the seaside in steam trains.
Food	We eat cockles, jellied eels, fish and chips, ice cream, sweets and candy floss at the seaside.
Entertainment	We see Punch and Judy shows, listen to brass bands and watch jugglers and magicians on the beach.
Activities	We like to walk along the promenade or pier. We also like building sandcastles, exploring rock pools and having picnics.
Clothing	We wear swimming suits that cover most of our bodies. We wear our clothes when we are on the sand so that we don't get a suntan. We get changed in a bathing machine.
