

Childhood Then and Now

Today we will be...

Comparing what children wore in different times.

Back

Next

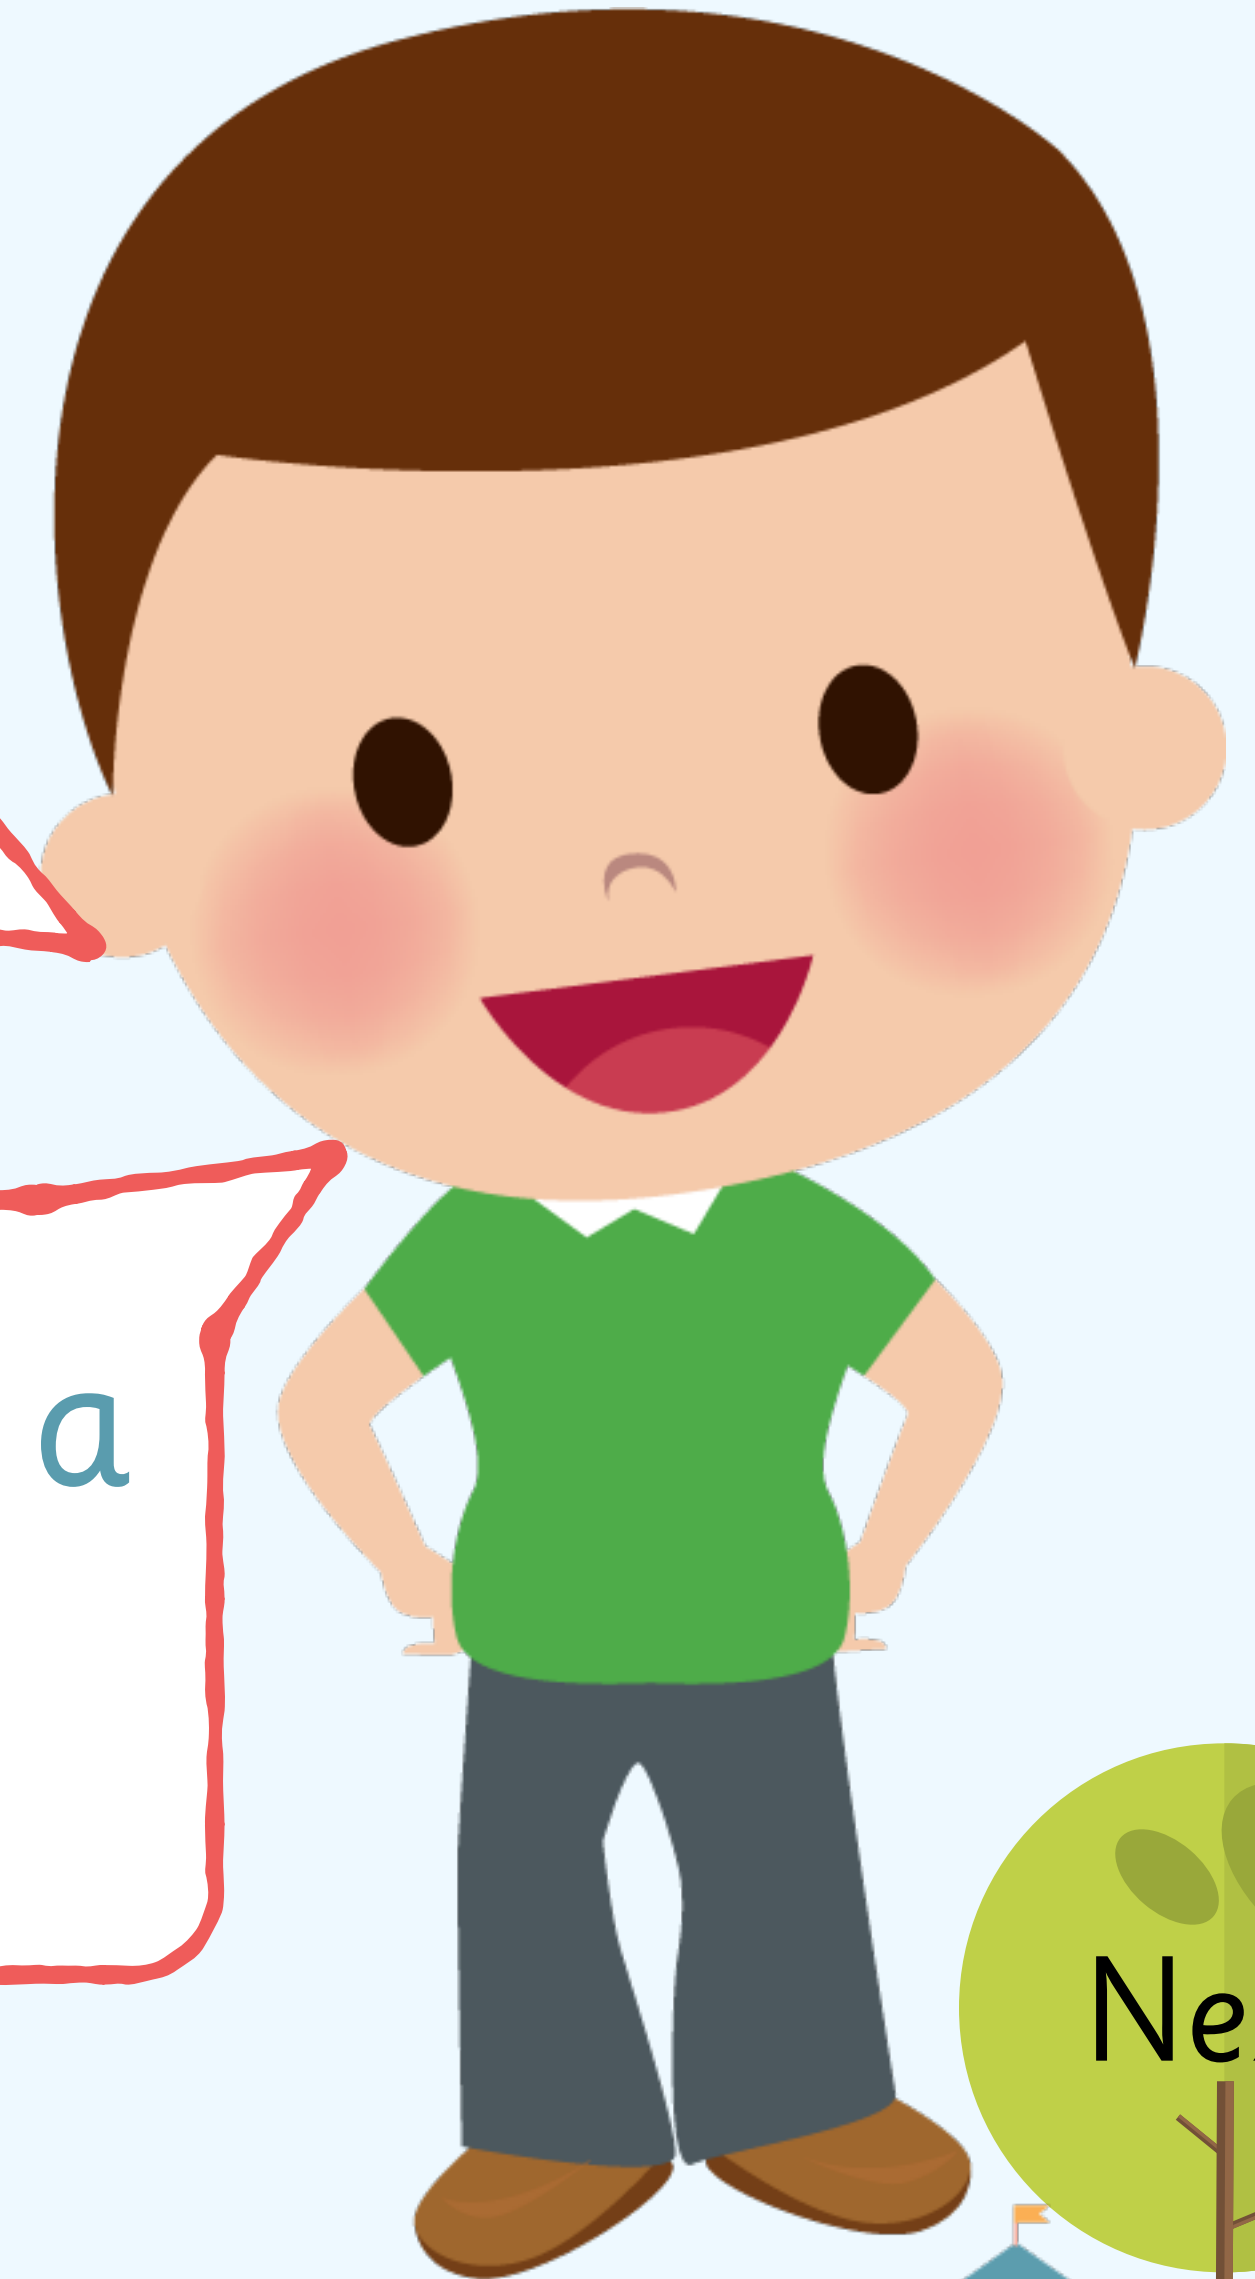

Look at the paintings of the children playing. What are they wearing?

Would it be easy to play a running or a climbing game wearing the clothes?

Back

Next

Children's Games by Peter Brueghel the Elder 1560

Back

Next

Gainsborough's
Daughters Chasing a
Butterfly by Thomas
Gainsborough 1756

Back

Next

Snap the Whip by Winslow Homer 1872

Back

Next

Girl with Hoop by Pierre-Auguste
Renoir 1885

Back

Next

Afternoon Tea by John Everett Millais 1889

Back

Next

Playing Children by Peter Hansen 1907

Back

Next

Boys playing with hoops 1922

Back

Next

Children playing on an old tractor 2016

Back

Next

What are you wearing now?
Can you run and climb in it?

What do you wear when you go to the park?

Back

Next

Plenary

What colour is your favourite to wear? Why?

Is there a colour you don't like to wear? Why?

Back

Next

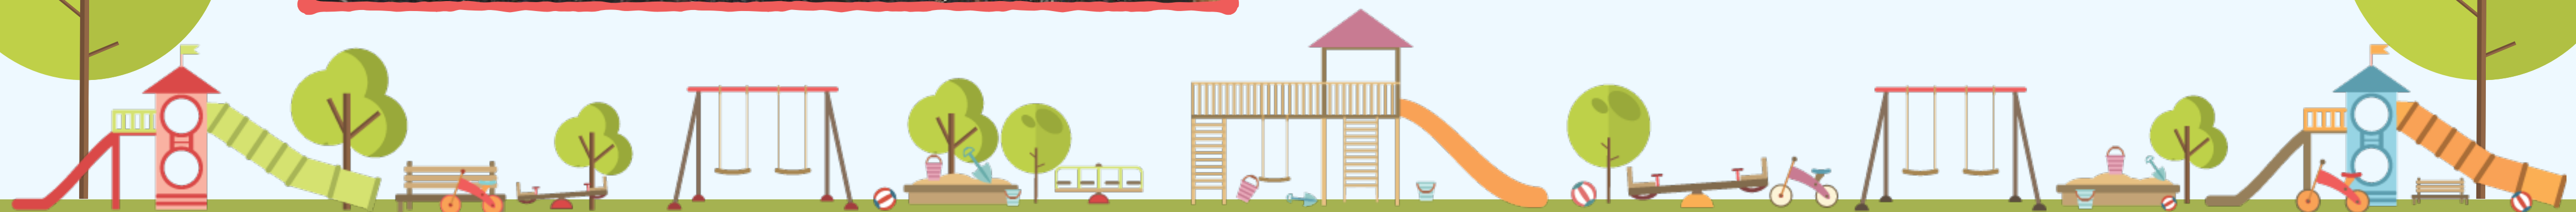

Did you know that for a long time blue was considered to be a girls' colour and red was a boys' colour?

In this painting Jesus is wearing pink and Mary is wearing blue.

Back

Next

Do you think this painting is of a boy or a girl?

Back

Next

It is a painting of a boy. Pink is a light shade of red so boys wore it as they thought it was a strong colour.

Do you agree?

Young Boy with Whip 1840

Back

Next

