The Olympics – Editing Task

The Olympic Games first started out over two thousand seven hundred years ago. Did you know the very first Games was held in Olympia in Ancient Greece? Now, the Olympic Games take place every 4 years, in different countries all over the world.

The reason why Ancient Greeks started the Olympics was to celebrate their Gods, Zeus and Hera. Events included: long jump, wrestling, boxing, javelin, chariot racing and discus. Women were not allowed to take part!

The Olympic Torch

The Olympic Torch is always passed around the country the Olympics is hosted in. The reason for this is because back in Ancient Greek times the torch was passed around the country informing people of the games.

Olympic Rings

There are 5 Olympic rings and each one represents the 5 continents of the world that take part in the Olympics. The colours of the rings are: black, green, red, blue and yellow.

2016 Olympic Games

This year, the Olympic Games are being held in Rio de Janeiro in Brazil. Rio de Janeiro is home to many famous landmarks including: Christ the Redeemer statue, Sugarloaf Mountain and Copacabana Beach. Would you like to visit Brazil?
