	Why is it a bit surprising that Brian is such an expert on dogs?
2.	Write a question that Brian's teacher might ask him when she is relying on his superior knowledge.
8.	Join each character to words the writer uses to describe them.
	Brian apathetic
	His parents enduring
	His sister thoughtless
ŀ.	"Brian endured the situation."
	Which word or phrase is closest in meaning to "endured" in this sentence? Tick one.
	continued put up with
	enjoyed endangered
	At the end of paragraph 1, it cave that Prian waited What do you think he was waiting for?
.	At the end of paragraph 1, it says that bhan walled. What do you think he was walting for b .	At the end of paragraph 1, it says that Brian waited. What do you think he was waiting for?
	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help.
ō.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask
ō.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help.
ō.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind".
ō.	 Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one.
ō.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave.
ō.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave. He got angry very quickly.
ō.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave. He got angry very quickly. He got into trouble because he didn't think things through.
5.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave. He got angry very quickly. He didn't care about anyone else. Do you think Brian might have taken the Pekinese? Explain your answer.
5. 7.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave. He got angry very quickly. He got into trouble because he didn't think things through. He didn't care about anyone else. Do you think Brian might have taken the Pekinese? Explain your answer.
5. 7.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave. He got angry very quickly. He got into trouble because he didn't think things through. He didn't care about anyone else. Do you think Brian might have taken the Pekinese? Explain your answer. Write the paragraph number that matches each of these statements. Introduces the problem in the story.
5. 7.	Write a word, phrase or clause from paragraph 1 that gives a reason why the police might ask Brian for help. Brian is described as having a "cool yet curiously reckless mind". What do you think the author meant by this? Tick one. He was calm, clever and brave. He got angry very quickly. He got into trouble because he didn't think things through. He didn't care about anyone else. Do you think Brian might have taken the Pekinese? Explain your answer.